

Faculty Opening - Suzuki Violin Teacher (Saturday afternoon)

Position: Part-time

Pay: Hourly, commensurate with experience

Start date: September, 2018

Indian Hill Music School, a community music school in Littleton MA, with a faculty of 60+ professional teaching artists, has an opening in the fall for a part-time Suzuki Violin Teacher to teach weekly private lessons and required group classes in our Suzuki program at 1pm on Saturdays.

Education and Experience:

Candidates should have a degree in music and a minimum of three years of teaching experience. They should be certified at least through Suzuki Book 1 with the intent to pursue addition certification, and be very comfortable working with students as young as four years old through more advanced, older students.

Essential Qualities:

Indian Hill Music faculty members are responsible for: 1) inspiring and sharing their love of music with their students; 2) setting a high bar for students' levels of technical skill and musicality; 3) clearly communicating expectations and working toward shared goals; and 4) advocating for their students to engage in additional IHM programs to deepen their musical development and their commitment to their studies.

Indian Hill offers many ancillary benefits to our faculty members, including a variety of paid professional performance opportunities and funding for professional development (by application). Regular weekly teaching throughout the school year is required, as is attendance at an annual fall faculty meeting and occasional clerical tasks. Timeliness and reliability, as well as strong communication practices with both students/families and school administrators, are essential to this role.

How to Apply

Please send your resume, cover letter, and any other supporting materials, including salary requirements, to Pete Robbins, Director of Education with "Suzuki Violin Teacher" in the subject line. Applications submitted without a salary range will not be considered.
