

Indian Hill Music School

Faculty Opening - Guitar and Ukulele Instructor (Private and Small Group)

Start date: September, 2018

Indian Hill Music School, a community music school in Littleton, MA with a faculty of 60+ professional teaching artists, has an opening in the fall for a part-time Guitar Instructor to teach students of all ages and abilities, including young beginners, on Saturdays. The position involves teaching private lessons to guitar and ukulele students of all ages and ability levels, and small groups of students ages 5-7 in our weekly 45-minute Beginner Guitar and perhaps also our Beginner Ukulele class. Opportunities to lead chamber, jazz, rock, and/or other types of ensembles may also be available either later in the school year or in subsequent years.

Indian Hill Music faculty members are responsible for: 1) inspiring and sharing their love of music with their students; 2) setting a high bar for students' levels of technical skill and musicality; 3) clearly communicating expectations and working toward shared goals; and 4) advocating for their students to engage in additional Indian Hill Music programs to enhance their musical development, their commitment to their studies, and the joy they receive from making music with others.

Ideal candidates should have a degree in music (Bachelors required, Masters preferred) and a minimum of three years of teaching experience, and must be comfortable working with students of all ages and ability/experience levels on both guitar and ukulele.

Indian Hill offers many ancillary benefits to our faculty members, including a variety of paid professional performance opportunities and funding for professional development (by application). Regular weekly teaching throughout the school year is required, as is attendance at an annual faculty meeting in the fall and the completion of occasional administrative tasks, including timely and responsive communication by phone and email. Timeliness and reliability, as well as strong communication practices with both students/families and school staff, are essential.
