

indian hill
music school
Strings Masterclass with Judith Eissenberg violin

Saturday, October 27

10:30am | FREE

36 King Street, Littleton, MA

Learn technique and performance tips while watching acclaimed chamber musician Ms. Eissenberg work with selected Indian Hill students.

Judith Eissenberg is a professor of chamber music at Brandeis University and Boston Conservatory at Berklee, and a founding member and second violinist of the internationally celebrated Lydian String Quartet. Eissenberg performs the full range of chamber music, from standard and contemporary literature to collaborations across musical traditions.

The Lydian String Quartet is recognized for its depth of interpretation, performing with "a precision and involvement marking them as "among the world's best quartets" (Chicago Sun-Times).

In the Boston area, Eissenberg has played with the Boston Conservatory Chamber Players, the Boston Chamber Music Society, and Emmanuel Music. She has expertise in period-instrument performance and was a member and soloist of Boston Baroque and the Handel and Haydn Society.

(978) 486-9524 | www.indianhillmusic.org